

Big Question: How can I use scale and perspective in Art to help show something of me?
16th May – 27th May

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Art knowledge

- I can research an artist, their style and media.
- I know how to use shape as a starting point to record accurate observations.
- I can present form in 2D work by demonstrating an understanding of perspective and tone.
 - I can enlarge an image to make it abstract.

Art skills

- I can select and use materials and technique with purpose and intent to develop my ideas and drawing skills.

CHARACTER EDUCATION

FLOURISHING

I can flourish by taking responsibility for my well-being.

METACOGNITION

CREATIVITY

I can use Thinking Hats to generate different perspectives on a piece of art.

As a writer I can:

- Write with consistently accurate tense.
- Use complex homophones accurately.

As a reader I can:

- I can make predictions about what might happen.
- I can make and justify inferences about a character's feelings thoughts and motives based on their actions.
- I can prepare poems and plays to perform to an audience.

Outcome

I can reflect on a piece of art work involving scale and perspective that I have created to show a personal interest